

Pacific Northwest Endurance Rides Scholarship Application

Please complete this application and send it to the Scholarship Committee no later than June 30 of the year you intend to use the funds. Email completed application to scholarship@pner.net

Applications will be evaluated by the Scholarship Committee who will be looking for age-appropriate writing, a compelling narrative, and evidence of excitement about learning. All decisions made by the Committee are final. Awardee(s) will be acknowledged at the annual PNER Convention.

In 2026 up to three $1,000 grants are available depending on qualified applicants. All awarded funds will be paid directly to the educational organization/program.

1. Identifying Information

Name: _____ PNER #: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State & Zip: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____ Date of accepted enrollment: _____

Major or Field of Study: _____

Name of Educational Institution or Program: _____

Dept receiving the Funds: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ State & Zip: _____

2. Information for Scholarship Committee to evaluate each applicant. Tell us about yourself. Current PNER Membership is required.

How long have you been a PNER member? _____

Do you belong to any other endurance organizations? AERC, EDRA, ERABC? Describe volunteer activities or committees you have worked on.

Describe your endurance riding history.

3. Describe your educational pursuit. Include length and anticipated outcome of your desired course of study and how it will lead to your desired career path.

4. Choose one of the following topics. Write an essay in the space provided.

- Create a biographical sketch of a mentor who most changed you as an endurance rider
- Create a biographical sketch of a well-known endurance figure who embodies the traits you most admire in endurance riders
- Write a creative story about a riding adventure that most developed your endurance capabilities
- Tell us about the horse that taught you the most about endurance